WHAT DOES LOVE MEAN?

A group of professional people posed this question to a group of 4 to 8 year-olds, "What does love mean?"
The answers they got were broader and deeper than anyone could have imagined.

LOVE IS:
- "When my grandmother got arthritis she couldn't bend over and paint her toenails anymore. So my grandfather does it for her all the time, even when his hands got arthritis too. That's love."
  - Rebecca - age 4
- "When someone loves you, the way they say your name is different. You know that your name is safe in their mouth."
  - Billy - age 4
- "Love is when you go out to eat and give somebody most of your French fries without making them give you any of theirs."
  - Chrissy - age 6
- "Love is what makes you smile when you're tired."
  - Terri - age 4
- "Love is when my mommy makes coffee for my daddy and she takes a sip before giving it to him, to make sure the taste is OK."
  - Danny - age 7
- "Love is when you kiss all the time. Then when you get tired of kissing, you still want to be together and you talk more. My mommy and Daddy are like that. They look gross when they kiss."
  - Emily - age 8
- "Love is what's in the room with you at Christmas if you stop opening presents and listen."
  - Bobby - age 5
- "If you want to learn to love better, you should start with a friend who you ate."
  - Nikka - age 6
- "When you tell someone something bad about yourself and you're scared they won't love you anymore. But then you get surprised because not only do they still love you, they love you even more."
  - Matthew - age 7

• "There are two kinds of love. Our love. God's love. But God makes both kinds of them."
  - Jenny - age 4
• "Love is when you tell a guy you like his shirt, then he wears it everyday."
  - Noelle - age 7
• "Love is like a little old woman and a little old man who are still friends even after they know each other so well."
  - Tommy - age 6
• "During my piano recital, I was on a stage and scared. I looked at all the people watching me and saw my daddy waving and smiling. He was the only one doing that. I wasn't scared anymore."
  - Cindy - age 8
• "My mommy loves me more than anybody. You don't see anyone else kissing me to sleep at night."
  - Clare - Age 5
• "Love is when mommy gives daddy the best piece of chicken."
  - Elaine - age 5
• "Love is when mommy sees daddy smelly and sweaty and still says he is handsomer than Robert Redford."
  - Chris - age 8

  - Mary Ann - age 4
• "I know my older sister loves me because she gives me all her old clothes and has to go out and buy new ones."
  - Lauren - age 4

  - Mike - age 8
• "When you love somebody, your eyelashes go up and down and little stars come out of you."
  - Karen - age 7
• "You really shouldn't say I love you, unless you mean it. But if you mean it, you should say it a lot."
  - Jessica - age 8

A WORD
FOR THE WISE

PERTINACIOUS (adj.): 1. Adhering resolutely to an opinion or purpose. 2. Stubbornly unyielding or tenacious.

If you take away the first syllable of “pertinacious,” you’re left with something very similar to the word “tenacious,” which means “tending to adhere or cling.” The similarity between these two words isn’t mere coincidence; both derive from Latin tenax, meaning “tenacious,” and ultimately from the verb tenere, which meant “to hold.” But “pertinacious” and “tenacious” aren’t completely interchangeable. Both can mean “persistent,” but “pertinacious” suggests an annoying or irksome persistence, while the less critical “tenacious” implies strength in maintaining or adhering to something valued or habitual.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Through this toilsome world, alas!
Once and only once I pass;
If a kindness I may show,
If a good deed I may do
To a suffering fellow man,
Let me do it while I can.
No delay, for it is plain
I shall not pass this way again.
