History of USC Salkehatchie

USC Salkehatchie was established in 1965 as a regional center of the University of South Carolina as a result of local civic commitment initiated by residents from Allendale, Bamberg, and Hampton counties who organized a movement to create a regional campus in 1964. The General Assembly of South Carolina responded to this momentum by creating the Western Carolina Higher Education Commission, which is composed of two representatives from each of the participating counties. Barnwell County joined the compact three years later, followed by Colleton County in 1984.

The commission contracted with the University’s Board of Trustees to provide the facilities for a University center, while the University provided administrative and academic support. The center was named Salkehatchie after the river that runs through all five counties that support the campus.

An unused elementary school in Allendale provided the first building for the new campus, and the academic program was initiated in the fall of 1965, with eight part-time faculty and 76 students. Student enrollment nearly doubled the following school year. When it appeared that enrollment might decrease, political support was mobilized by community residents who persuaded the legislature to provide monies to eliminate the initial operating deficit. Several measures were taken by the University to strengthen the regional campuses throughout the system and, with the appointment of a regional provost, administration was improved. Campus directors were given power to formulate budgets, and the state legislature began to provide a per-student contribution. Thus the task of increasing student enrollment was successfully undertaken, with student numbers increasing in succeeding years. Today nearly 800 enroll yearly at the campus.

The first non-University review of the campus came in 1968, when the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools visited Salkehatchie in the fall for an accreditation visit. The committee expressed a generally positive view of the efforts being made to develop both the program and the facilities at the new institution and recommended increasing the number of full-time faculty rather than relying on part-time faculty to teach the increasing numbers of students enrolling annually.

The expansion of facilities began in June 1972 when the Allendale Hut Complex, composed of two historic log cabin structures erected during the WPA movement, was deeded to the campus by Allendale County. USC Salkehatchie now owns homes and other buildings adjacent to the original building that now house faculty offices and the Extended Graduate Campus program. To provide for future expansion, the campus commission purchased 65 acres of adjoining land in February 1975. A master plan has been developed for future expansion of the campus. The Science/Administration Building is located on the 65-acre tract and has been available for classes since the fall 1981 semester. In 1983 the campus added the Salkehatchie Civic Arts Center. The most recent addition was a 29,500 square-foot Library/Computer Science Building, which opened for use in fall 1991, located next to the Science/Administration Building in the central part of campus. Also in 1991, the Sarah T. Winthrop Foundation donated an additional 94 acres adjacent to the original location, bringing the current holdings to over 150 acres.
Beginning in 1978, USC Salkehatchie reached out to Walterboro by offering six courses there for the convenience of Colleton County residents. Today, nearly 100 courses are offered each semester, enabling residents of that area to work toward associate's degrees. In the fall of 1982, the former Walterboro High School building and support facilities became vacant, allowing Salkehatchie to establish a permanent second location to its campus holdings. In 1991 the campus commission purchased additional acreage, providing a permanent site for USC in the historic district of downtown Walterboro. In 2003 Colleton County gave two additional buildings, adjacent to the campus, to USC Salkehatchie allowing for more expansion.

The growth of USC Salkehatchie can also been seen in the expansion of its curricula. New areas of study have been added over the years, including applied professions, education, criminal justice, geography, music, physical education, nursing and computer science. The University recognized the development of the academic program in June 1973 when it granted the campus the power to confer associate's degrees.

Salkehatchie is proud of its contributions to the communities that supports it. An outreach program offers courses in local high schools for academically talented seniors. An evening program of courses was begun in September 1976 with ten classes, but community response resulted in the rapid expansion of the evening program. The campus also sponsors an annual artist and lecture series, as well as workshops, seminars, and other programs of community interest.

Since 1965 USC Salkehatchie has provided opportunities in higher education to thousands of students who might otherwise have missed the chance for a college education. As the campus has grown, so has its educational, cultural, and economic impact on the community. Today the campus boasts an internationally and culturally diverse faculty dedicated to providing quality educational experiences to students.

USC Salkehatchie is also committed to the economic growth and development of its five-county service area. The USC Salkehatchie Leadership Center opened in 1998 as a result of the cooperative effort of the University of South Carolina, the Allendale County Chamber of Commerce, BellSouth, South Carolina State University, Clemson University, U.S. Rural Development, the S.C. Commission on Minority Affairs, the S.C. Department of Commerce, the S.C. Downtown Development Association, and Leadership South Carolina. The mission of the center is to provide programs for leadership development and to serve as a catalyst for community and economic development in the region. The center has been instrumental in generating grant funding for county programs and providing leadership training for county officials and citizens of the area. In addition, the Leadership Center recently developed the USC Salkehatchie Entrepreneurial Development Center to foster small business development and ownership in order to stimulate economic progress in the five-county service area. The EDC establishes relationships with existing entrepreneurs and cultivates new business ownership. It provides the research and training necessary for successful micro-business ownership in an ever increasingly competitive economic environment.

THE USC SALKEHATCHIE BULLETIN

As a matriculated (that means fully registered) student at USC Salkehatchie, you are bound by the policies and rules of the University of South Carolina. Your registering for school commits you to an agreement to follow those rules and policies. But where do you find them?

You can find them in the USC Salkehatchie Bulletin which is located under the student information tab on our webpage at http://USCSalkehatchie.sc.edu.

The USC Salkehatchie Bulletin is a contract between you as a student and the University. The Bulletin spells out for you what is required to earn your Associate’s Degree. (Degree requirements for four year degrees for USC Columbia can be found on the University’s webpage at www.sc.edu or for other four-year colleges and universities on their own individual web pages.) The Bulletin lists all courses taught at USC Salkehatchie. To find out what is taught for a particular semester or summer session, you should also visit our webpage and click on the tab for the schedule for the particular semester in which you are interested.

Also listed in the Bulletin are the regulations you need to know. Admissions requirements, continuing requirements and graduation requirements are all explained there. The academic calendar for a particular semester is there (as well as on each semester’s schedule). In addition, there are explanations of grading, honors lists, attendance policies and other very useful information. You are encouraged to browse through the Bulletin to familiarize yourself with the information available there.
II. Getting Started
It is best that you apply for admissions and financial aid early so, to help you with that, we are providing you with a timeline to follow.

Apply early for admissions and provide the admissions office with a copy of your FINAL high school transcript and/or college transcripts if you have attended another college, university or tech school. We will also need your SAT/ACT score if you are under the age of 25. Getting all of this in early helps you to be admitted to school early so it’s easier to get in your classes and so that your financial aid can be awarded.

Your admissions file must be complete before financial aid will be awarded. Be sure to provide requested documentation in a timely manner.

If your high school guidance office does not have an admissions application for USC Salkehatchie, contact us and we will mail you an application. You can also apply online at our web site, http://uscsalkehatchie.sc.edu.

Financial Aid is a very important part of most everyone’s college education. Therefore, the earlier you apply, the better. Some financial aid is awarded on a first come first serve basis, so, to take advantage of those programs, apply early.

We recommend that students complete the FAFSA in January or February of their senior year of high school. You will need your and your parent’s tax returns to complete the FAFSA, so encourage your parents to file as soon as possible.

Again, be sure to provide requested documentation in a timely manner. Financial Aid will not be awarded to you if your file is incomplete or documentation is missing.

The FAFSA can be completed online at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

Here is a timeline for your planning purposes:

- Apply for admission.
- Apply for financial aid.
- Make an appointment with an advisor and sign up for classes.
- Take a copy of your advisement form to the Admissions Office in Allendale or the Main Office in Walterboro.
- Go on line to VIP and put yourself in your classes.
- Attend Orientation.
- Attend Fee Payment.
- Have student ID made.
- Buy books.
- Go to class.
HOW TO PAY FOR COLLEGE
FINANCIAL AID

Post-secondary education is as much a part of the great American dream as life itself. The first challenge after deciding to attain a higher education (after choosing where you want to attend) is how to go about paying for it. That’s where financial aid comes into play. Some suggested steps to follow are:

In order to be eligible for financial aid, you must first be accepted to USC Salkehatchie. Complete an admissions application form and request transcripts from high school and previously attended post-secondary schools. There will be a required fee with your application. Next, begin to examine the cost of attending USC Salkehatchie and all pertinent information contained in the catalog.

EDUCATIONAL EXPENSES:

A. Tuition and fees – Determine the cost of tuition per credit hour for a full-time student (generally 12 credit hours).

B. Books and supplies – Post-secondary education is different from a public high school experience. You will have to purchase your books and materials for the classes you take. A good estimate is $100 per class for books. A helpful hint: Buy used books at the USC Salkehatchie Campus Bookstore. Often, you can save money and stretch your resource dollars. If you do not wish to keep your textbooks for your personal library, you may bring them to the book buy back, sponsored by the publishing company. One is scheduled at the end of the fall semester, and one at the end of the spring semester.

LIVING EXPENSES:

A. Room and board – A commuter campus does not have on-campus housing or a cafeteria; however, these costs are still reflected as a part of the living expense while attending USC Salkehatchie.

B. Personal – If you have personal or miscellaneous expenses while attending USC Salkehatchie, these need to be budgeted.

C. Transportation – This expense is an important cost factor. How much does it cost you to get from home to USC Salkehatchie? How many times in a school year will you be making the trip?

D. Dependent Care – If you get married, or if you are already married and have a family while at USC Salkehatchie, you will need to plan and budget for your new responsibilities, such as childcare and baby supplies.

All of these items (A through F) will have dollar figures associated with them, and you will begin to see that the bottom line figure begins to amount to a pretty sizeable number quite rapidly. You will need to do this kind of budget forecasting for each semester that you anticipate being in school at USC Salkehatchie.

Now that you have determined what it will cost to attend USC Salkehatchie, the next task will be to build a “pool of resources” to pay for those costs.
There are a number of resources upon which you can draw. You may use any or all of the following sources to help you pay for your school:

A. The South Carolina Legislative Incentives for Future Excellence (LIFE) Scholarship – LIFE recipients can attend USC Salkehatchie tuition free! In order to qualify for the LIFE scholarship, entering freshmen must meet the following criteria:

- South Carolina resident
- 3.0 cumulative grade point average on a 4.0 scale at the time of high school graduation for entering freshmen
- No felony convictions
- No defaults or refunds owed on Federal or State financial aid
- Full-time degree-seeking undergraduate students in an eligible program of study

In order to renew the LIFE scholarship, continuing students must meet the following criteria:

- 3.0 cumulative grade point average on a 4.0 scale; and
- Sophomores who must have completed a minimum of 30 credit hours

Be advised that LIFE recipients may benefit from the LIFE Scholarship for no more than four semesters at a two-year institution. LIFE requirements and/or value may change for the 2010-2011 academic year.

B. Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) – This application builds a need profile of the application. The FAFSA requires no processing fee. If you qualify, this money comes from the federal government and can be used for tuition, books, fees, and in some cases, living expenses. Students must be enrolled at least half time, but this aid only applies to undergraduate work.

C. The Lottery Tuition Assistance Program (LTAP)

If eligible, LTAP recipients may receive up to $1800.00 based on full-time enrollment per year. Part-time students who are enrolled in 6-11 credit hours may receive up to $75.00 per credit hour. In order to qualify for LTAP, students must meet the following criteria:

- South Carolina resident
- 2.0 cumulative grade point average on a 4.0 scale
- No felony convictions
- No defaults or refunds owed on federal or state financial aid
- Complete 2010-2011 Free Application for Federal Student Aid
- Not have earned an associates degree within the last five years

LTAP requirements and/or value may change for the 2011-2012 academic year.
D. Loans – There is a variety of loan sources from which to choose (Direct Loan, Perkins Loan, PLUS Loan, Teacher Loans). Remember, a loan will need to be repaid upon completion of your schooling, often with an interest rate added to the borrowed principle amount. Repayment is usually scheduled to be made during a reasonable period (with the exception of the teacher loans).

E. Contact the Financial Aid Office at USC Salkehatchie. This office will have a list of scholarships that are available to students, along with the application forms and criteria. Often, there are numerous forms to complete; however, persistence pays off. If you are determined to achieve the goals you have set for yourself, you will take the time to answer every question on each application form to increase your chances to receive financial assistance. Don’t become discouraged by the paperwork that is involved. Post-secondary education will always involve a great deal of paperwork. The USC Salkehatchie scholarship deadline is February 1.

F. Another way to obtain the resources you need for school is part-time work. There are a number of locations on campus and off campus where part-time employment can be arranged to help you meet your expenses. Be cautious and maintain a healthy balance in managing your time. Allow enough time to keep abreast of your studies. Do not permit your grades to suffer. You will then have a whole new set of problems.

G. Veterans’ Benefits – Veterans and children of deceased or disabled veterans may be eligible to receive educational assistance through the Veterans Administration. Students are urged to apply for benefits prior to the beginning of the semester.

As you begin to reach the goals you have set for yourself, you will find that it was not as difficult as you once thought.

FAILURE TO PAY FEES:
If you do not take action to commit your financial aid to pay your University charges for any term, your financial aid for that semester or summer session, as well as subsequent semesters or summer sessions, will be canceled. In order to avoid cancellation for the entire year, you must request in writing that your future aid be held and not canceled. The Financial Aid Office must receive this request before you use your aid to pay University fees.

EXCESS AID:
In cases where your available financial aid is greater than your University charges, you will be able to receive the excess in the form of a University check. You may pick up an overage check from the Business Office.

GETTING STARTED:

A brand new start to a better future! You've completed your class schedule and now it's time to purchase your textbooks. Here are a few tips to follow this semester when you buy your books:

BUY EARLY! The week before registration is a good time to venture into the bookstore and buy your books. You should have your schedule set and know what classes you will be taking. Buying your books early has several advantages; you have first choice of used books which saves you money and you avoid the long lines on registration day.

REFUNDS & BOOK BUY BACK! Refunds are given ONLY for the following reasons:
   1. If you drop a class
   2. If you withdraw completely from school
   3. If you are unable to get into a class

Cash register receipt and book slip must accompany return. New books must be in mint condition and left in plastic wrap or else you will be issued the used book price.

Book Buy Back is held during the Fall and Spring Semesters and generally scheduled for the last two days of exam week.

The bookstore cannot defer the cost of your books if your financial aid is not available at the start of classes. The average student will spend about $225 on textbooks his/her first semester.

Textbook prices are available a couple of weeks before registration day. If you're not sure what you need to do about buying books, call and ask. We will be glad to help you in any way. We invite you to come into the bookstore and look around before classes begin. You can find Salkehatchie T-shirts, shorts, caps, key chains, and much, much more.

Salkehatchie Student Ambassadors

USC Salkehatchie Student Ambassadors serve as hosts for the Recruiting and Admissions departments and assist the staff in recruiting students for the campus. That includes participating in special events, interacting with visitors to our campus, giving presentations to local schools and organizations, and leading campus tours.

The Student Ambassadors program has been designed as a prestigious organization with a carefully selected membership. An Ambassador reflects the high caliber and good academic standing of the Salkehatchie family. Leadership, communication skills, an outgoing personality, and the ability to share their enthusiasm about this campus are essential.

In addition, candidates must be recommended for ambassadorship by a member of the campus faculty or staff; be enrolled as a full-time student with at least one semester of previous enrollment; and maintain at least a 3.0 GPA.

While Ambassadors provide an important service to USC Salkehatchie, there are also major rewards that come with being part of the prestigious group. Ambassadors receive shirts, gifts, and rewards that are not available to other students, including special recognition events. The number and type of rewards earned individually vary based on a point system that takes into account an Ambassador’s service record.

Any student interested in serving as an Ambassador should speak with a faculty member about nominating them for the honor. Nominations are accepted annually at the end of the spring semester, and may be accepted at the end of the fall semester, depending on slot availability.

The grade point average is computed on the basis of all semester hours attempted for credit, except for credit hours carried under the Pass-Fail or audit options. Courses in which a grade of S, U, AUD, T, or W was earned are not considered in computing the GPA.

The grade points earned in any course carried with a passing grade (A, B+, B, C+, C, D+, D) are computed by multiplying the number of semester hour credits assigned to the course by a factor determined by the grade.

For courses in which the grade of A was earned, the factor is 4; for B+, 3.5; for B, 3; for C+, 2.5; for C, 2; for D+, 1.5; for D, 1. The grade point average is determined by dividing the total number of semester grade points earned by the total number of semester hours attempted for credit (excepting hours carried on a Pass-Fail or audit basis). No grade points are assigned to the symbols F, S, U, WF, W, I, AUD, T, or NR.

TRANSFER AND CHANGE OF CAMPUS

Many of our students plan to change campuses to other USC campuses or transfer to another college after attending USC Salkehatchie. Even at the beginning, you are probably thinking about how the credits you earn here will transfer to USC Aiken, USC Columbia or even S. C. State or Clemson.

USC Salkehatchie is fully accredited, and all credits transfer to other institutions. Actually, the courses offered at USC Salkehatchie are all USC Columbia or USC Aiken courses, so carrying credits to these institutions is especially easy. As a matter of fact, we do not speak of “transfer” to the other campuses of USC; we speak of a “change of campus.” Changing from USC Salkehatchie to USC Columbia is the same as changing from the College of Business Administration to the College of Arts and Sciences on the Columbia campus.

Changing campuses involves filling out a change of campus form, available in our Admissions Office or in the Main Office in Walterboro, and following the directions in the booklet, Change of Campus Student Transition Guide, also available in the same offices. In order to transfer outside of the USC system, you will need to complete an application for admission to that institution and have your USC transcript sent to them. You can contact the Office of the Registrar on the Columbia campus at 803-777-5555 or go on VIP for an official transcript.
HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR TRANSCRIPT REQUEST ON VIP

- You must have attended USC anytime from 1977 to the present and have a valid PIN.
- Access VIP at http://vip.sc.edu. The VIP Official Transcript Request Form is located under the Academics Menu.
- Only complete and official USC transcripts are issued.
- Once a transcript request has been submitted it cannot be canceled or changed.
- Contact the Registrars Office in Columbia for pre-paid mailing services (Federal Express, Express Mail, etc...).

VIP OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT REQUEST FEE PAYMENT

Official transcripts are $8.00 per copy. This is a non-refundable fee that will be charged to your credit card for each separate request made.

Credit card payment with a valid Visa or MasterCard is required to submit your request on VIP.

If you have questions regarding the VIP Official Transcript Request Form, please contact the Admissions Office at 803-584-3446 or 1-800-922-5500.
Change of Campus/College

Students interested in transferring to another USC campus after they have met the requirements need to fill out a change of campus/college form. These forms are located in the Admissions Office at the West campus in Allendale and in the Main Office at the East Campus in Walterboro. College of Arts and Sciences
Liberal Arts majors: 2.0
Science majors: 2.5

Moore School of Business: 3.0 plus a grade of “C” or higher on Math S122. Students change of campus form must be received at the Columbia campus by October 15 for spring and March 15 for fall semesters. *There is also one additional form to complete for the Moore School of Business

College of Education: 2.25

What is the Opportunity Scholars Program?

The Opportunity Scholars Program (OSP) is a TRIO Student Support Services Program at the University of South Carolina Salkehatchie. The program serves 160 low income, first generation, and disabled students on the USC Salkehatchie campus.

The program is free to eligible students and provides the following services to its participants:

Tutoring: OSP offers one on one and group tutoring in such subjects as mathematics, English, history, and science. Additionally, OSP encourages student study groups for students in these subject areas.

Advising: Every OSP student is eligible to receive academic, financial, and career advisement on an individual basis. Students’ schedules, progress, and grades are closely monitored each semester. The OSP intervenes to assist students in succeeding in the classroom.

Academic and Topical Workshops: OSP hosts workshops to assist students in a variety of topics such as study skills, time management, research papers, and PRAXIS test preparation.

Student Activities and Cultural Events: Throughout the year, OSP hosts a diverse range of cultural events and student activities such as campus musical events and travel to culturally significant monuments, museums, and other educational venues.

Computer Labs: The OSP has two computer labs at USC Salkehatchie. One is on the West Campus and the other is on the East Campus. Unless a special OSP event is going on or all slots are being used by OSP students, other students are welcome to use these labs to do research and work on papers. All users are asked to abide by the following policy.

Eligibility: All USC Salkehatchie students are encouraged to apply to the OSP, but because of federal eligibility guidelines, the program is restricted in the number of students served. However, a student who applies to the program will be properly evaluated. Please contact the OSP office for more information on eligibility requirements. (803)-584-3446, ext. 157 or 178.
